California Credit Score Disclosure

Applicant: _____

Subject Property: _____

In evaluating your application for a home mortgage loan, one factor your lender will consider is one or more of your credit scores because they assist the lender in evaluating your credit history in a faster, more objective manner. Your credit scores are found on your credit report, a copy of which was provided to you with this disclosure. The range of possible scores is from 300 to 850. Your lender may also obtain and consider other credit scores in making its decision on your application from the credit bureaus listed below.

In addition to the credit scores, your credit report list the key reasons why your scores were less than the maximum possible scores. Please keep in mind that these reasons are provided based on variables, where you received less than the maximum number of points possible. The listing of these reasons does not by itself indicate that you would not be approved for the loan you have requested. The lender considers many factors in addition to your credit score in making a decision on you application. If your application is not approved, you will receive a separate notice stating the specific reasons for that action which may or may not relate to your credit scores.

The originator or lender did not calculate your credit scores, nor did they develop the scoring models. If you have any questions about your credit scores or the information in the credit report from which the credit scores were computed, you can contact the credit bureaus at the addresses listed below:

Notice to Home Loan Applicant

Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1785.20.2

In connection with your application for a home loan, the lender must disclose to you the score that a credit bureau distributed to users and the lender used in connection with your home loan, and the key factors affecting your score.

The credit score is a computer-generated summary calculated at the time of the request and based on the information a credit bureau or lender has on file. The scores are based on data about your credit history and payment patterns. Credit scores are important because they are used to assist the lender in determining whether you will obtain a loan. They may also be used to determine what interest rate you may be offered on the mortgage. Credit scores can change over time, depending on your conduct, how your credit history and payment patterns change, and how credit scoring technologies change.

Because the score is based on information in your credit history, it is very important that you review the credit-related information that is being furnished to make sure it is accurate. Credit records may vary from one company to another.

If you have questions about your credit score or the credit information that is furnished to you, contact the credit bureau at the address and phone number provided with this notice, or contact the lender if the lender developed or generated the credit score. The credit bureau plays no part in the decision to take any action on the loan application and is unable to provide you with specific reasons for the decision on a loan application. If you have any question concerning the terms of the loan, contact the lender.

This acknowledges that this Disclosure, along with a copy of my/our credit report, has been provided to each applicant/client pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1785.20.2.

Appraisal Report Delivery Disclosure

Under our policies and procedures related to compliance with the Home Valuation Code of Conduct, if we use an appraisal report in connection with your residential mortgage loan application (other than a FHA or VA government insured or guaranteed mortgage), you are entitled to receive a copy of the appraisal report at least three business days prior to signing your loan documents (called "closing").

You will not be required to pay an additional amount to us to receive a copy of the appraisal report.

You may waive the three business day advance delivery of the appraisal report. If the appraisal report is not provided to you three business days in advance of your estimated closing date, you will be deemed to have waived this requirement if you have not told us that you want to postpone the closing of your loan. If you wish to exercise your right to the three business day review of your appraisal report, you must inform us at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled closing time to give us enough time to delay your closing.

By executing closing documents, you will be deemed to have waived the three-day requirement. If the three-day requirement is waived, we will provide you with a copy of the appraisal report no later than loan closing.

The appraisal report used in connection with your credit application was prepared solely for our use in evaluating a request for an extension of credit. The appraisal should not be relied upon by any other person or entity. We make no express or implied representation or warrant of any kind, and we expressly disclaim any liability to any person or entity with respect to the property valuation.
